

NICK W. DAVIS

OBJECTIVE

To obtain a career in Communications. Seeking position utilizing strong writing, speaking and research skills.

EDUCATION

Webster University St. Louis, MO May 2008
B.A. in Broadcast Journalism

BROADCAST EXPERIENCE

Metro Networks, A Westwood One Company January - May 2008

Writing and producing stories for St. Louis wire service as an intern for the largest traffic gathering operation in the world. Metro Networks provides news, sports, weather and traffic for over 30 media outlets. Producing news wraps, editing sound, conducting interviews, shadowing reporters. Working in sports department writing local college stories for afternoon feed.

The Weekly Report – Webster University January – May 2008

Reporting, anchoring, writing, and editing television news packages for this student-run newscast that airs on St. Louis area cable channel.

GTV – Gorlok Television

Announcing play-by-play for Webster University basketball games that air on Charter local access channel.

TECHNICAL SKILLS

Final Cut Pro, Soundtrack Pro, DV cameras/equipment, Microsoft Office, Mac OS

WORK HISTORY

Suburban Journals – Freelance June 2008 – Current

Reporting and writing sports stories for Jefferson County division of Suburban Journals. The Suburban Journals of Greater St. Louis are a group of 40 twice-weekly or weekly community newspapers.

Festus R-6 Schools Aug 2008 – Current

Substitute teaching for Elementary, Intermediate, Middle and High School classes.

Webster University Media Center - Non-linear Assistant Aug 2007 – May 2008

Helping students with audio/video editing and equipment.

Tru Green Chem Lawn – Sales Summer 2006 & 2007

Canvassing St. Louis neighborhoods door-to-door in effort to provide lawn care services to area residents.

Radio Shack – Sales Associate Nov 2004 – June 2006

Engaging customers, providing product knowledge and solving customer service issues.

